CONTENTS

NUMBER 1, JANUARY, 1918

The Toxicity of Victoria Blue 4R for B. paratyphosus A, B. paratyphosus B and B. enteritidis. Oscar Teague 1
Automatic Water Level for Arnold Sterilizers. Ivan C. Hall 7
An Aerobic Spore-forming Bacillus Giving Gas in Lactose Broth Isolated in Routine Water Examination. E. M. Meyer 9
A Simple Method for the Classification of Bacteria as to Diastase Production. Paul W. Allen 15
A Simple and Practical Medium for Differentiating B. typhosus, B. paratyphosus A, B. paratyphosus B, B. enteritidis and B. coli. Kan-Ichiro Morishima 19
A New Apparatus for Obtaining Simultaneous Cultures of Any Desired Age for Comparative Study. R. G. Perkins 23
Studies in the Nomenclature and Classification of the Bacteria. V. Subgroups and Genera of the Bacteriaceae. R. E. Buchanan 27
A Study of Green Fluorescent Bacteria from Water. Fred W. Tanner 63

NUMBER 2, MARCH, 1918

The Science of Bacteriology and Its Relation to Other Sciences. Leo F. Rettger 103
Methods of Pure Culture Study. Preliminary Report of the Committee on the Chart for Identification of Bacterial Species. H. J. Conn, Chairman; H. A. Harding, I. J. Kligler, W. D. Frost, M. J. Prucha and K. N. Atkins 115
The Enzymes of the Tubercle Bacillus. H. S. Corper and H. C. Sweany 129
Some Characters which Differentiate the Lactic-acid Streptococcus from Streptococci of the Pyogenes Type Occurring in Milk. J. M. Sherman and W. R. Albus 153
Studies in the Nomenclature and Classification of the Bacteria. VI. Subdivisions and Genera of the Spirillaceae and Nitrobacteriaceae. R. E. Buchanan 175
The Direct or Breed Method for Counting Bacteria in Tomato Catsup, Pulp or Paste. Charlotte Vincent 183
Blue Printing Directly from Agar Plates. Jean Broadhurst 187
Comparison of Loeffler's Coagulated Blood Serum and Blood Serum with the Addition of Sterile Ox Gall. Helen R. Odell 189

336594

NUMBER 3, MAY, 1918

Studies Relative to the Apparent Close Relationship Between Bact. pertussis and B. bronchisepticus. I. Cultural Agglutination and Absorption Reactions. N. S. Ferry and Arlyle Noble 193
The Growth of Bacteria in Protein-free Enzyme- and Acid-Digestion Products. Harold C. Robinson and Leo F. Rettger 209
The Characteristics of Bacteria of the Colon Type Occurring in Human Feces. L. A. Rogers, William Mansfield Clark and Herbert A. Lubs ... 231
A Statistical Classification of the Colon-Cloacae Group. Max Levine 253
Studies on Fowl Cholera. V. The Toxins of Bacillus avisepticus. Philip Hadley 277
A Lactose Fermenting Yeast Producing Foamy Cream. O. W. Hunter 293
Studies in the Nomenclature and Classification of the Bacteria. VII. The Subgroups and Genera of the Chlamydobacteriales. R. E. Buchanan .. 301
Early Instructors in Bacteriology in the United States (addenda). E. G. Hastings and C. B. Morrey 307

NUMBER 4, JULY, 1918

Studies Relative to the Apparent Close Relationship between Bact. pertussis and B. bronchisepticus. II. Complement Fixation Tests. N. S. Ferry and H. C. Klix 309
The Occurrence of Different Types of the Colon-Aerogenes Group in Water. L. A. Rogers 313
The Elimination of Spurious Presumptive Tests for B. coli in Water by the Use of Gentian Violet. Ivan C. Hall and Lillian Jordan Ellefson 329
A Brief Note on the Use of Gentian Violet in Presumptive Tests for B. coli in Milk with Reference to Sporulating Anaerobes. Ivan C. Hall and Lillian Jordan Ellefson 355
On the Value of the Petroleum-ether Method for the Isolation of B. typhosus from Feces. Lawrence A. Kohn and Charles Krumwiede, Jr. 361
Bacterial Nutrition: Further Studies on the Utilization of Protein and Non-Protein Nitrogen. Nathan Berman and Leo F. Rettger 367
The Influence of Carbohydrate on the Nitrogen Metabolism of Bacteria. Nathan Berman and Leo F. Rettger 389
Studies in the Nomenclature and Classification of the Bacteria. VIII. The Subgroups and Genera of the Actinomycetales. R. E. Buchanan .. 403
The Classification of the Aciduric Bacteria. Alfred H. Rahe 407
The Germicidal Action of Freezing Temperatures upon Bacteria. C. M. Hilliard and Mildred A. Davis 423

NUMBER 5, SEPTEMBER, 1918

A Synthetic Medium for the Direct Enumeration of Organisms of the Colon-Aerogenes Group. S. Henry Ayers and Philip Rupp 433
The Endo Medium for the Isolation of B. dysenteriae and a Double Sugar Medium for the Differentiation of B. dysenteriae Shiga and Flexner. I. J. Kligler and J. Defandorfer 437

Note on Cross-Agglutination of B. coli communis and B. dysenteriae Shiga. I. J. Kligler 441
Comments on the Evolution and Classification of Bacteria. R. S. Breed, H. J. Conn and J. C. Baker 445
Studies in the Nomenclature and Classification of the Bacteria. IX. The Subgroups and Genera of the Thiobacteriales 461
Studies on Proteolytic Activities of Soil Microörganisms with Special Reference to Fungi. Selman A. Waksman 475
A Modification of the Technique of the Voges and Proskauer Reaction. Geo. C. Bunker, Edward J. Tucker and Howard W. Green 493

NUMBER 6, NOVEMBER, 1918

Ozena and Distemper: Comparative Study of Coccobacillus foetidus-ozaene and Bacillus bronchisepticus. N. S. Ferry and Arlyle Noble 499
Studies on the Proteolytic Enzymes of Soil Fungi and Actinomyces. Selman A. Waksman 509
Some Observations on the Efficiency of the Present Standard Agar for the Estimation of Bacteria in Milk. H. J. Sears and Lulu L. Case 531
Sterilized Measured Amounts of Water in the Autoclave. H. A. Noyes 537
Studies in the Nomenclature and Classification of the Bacteria. X. Subgroups and Genera of the Myxobacteriales and Spirochaetales. R. E. Buchanan 541
A Note on the Nature of the Reaction of B. coli on Endo Medium. Reuben L. Kahn 547
A Simplified Confirmatory Test for B. coli. Reuben L. Kahn 555
The Differentiation of Lactose Fermenting Anaerobes from B. coli. Reuben L. Kahn 561
Index 565
